

ED Course Work “Abhudaya Module” – 31/05/2022-04/06/2022

In collaboration with Banarsidas Chandiwala Institute of Professional Studies, Banarsidas Chandiwala Institute of Physiotherapy organized an ED Course work for Physiotherapy Students with the following objectives:

- To make the students familiar with Entrepreneurial Mindset.
- To make student aware of the Opportunity Analysis and its role in Entrepreneurial Growth, Pre-Project Feasibility and importance of conducting this Pre-Feasibility study in Entrepreneurship
- To make the BPT Students familiar with Business Plan and how to formulate the Business Plan and inform them of the various Entrepreneurial Support provided to budding Entrepreneurs.

Description:

In this Program, detailed explanation was given about the entrepreneurship and its impact on oneself and surroundings. Government policies available for Economic development were also highlighted. Resource persons have shared the knowledge about to how set up the start-up, what all are the aspect that need to be taken in account to set up a business. Specific mention was given to opportunity search and identification-It implies to exploring new ventures and utilizing them for one’s own success.

Further, students were informed about the Feasibility study done prior to starting of new venture. Speaker has explained about what is Feasibility and pre-feasibility study, what are the key elements of feasibility study, how feasibility study helps in defining and determining the outcome of entrepreneurial journey. Explanation was given about the purpose of a business plan. It was also mentioned that how perception and environment affect someone’s work, how we perceive things and the environment that we work in brings a lot of changes (positive and negative) to it.

Resource Persons has also explained about what is EDP, how they work, how one can get connected to one etc. They explained about the role of government in this whole process. Sir explained about micro, small and medium scale industries, criteria of categorizing industries into micro, small and medium ones.

At the end of this program, a feedback session was organized at Banarsidas Chandiwala institute of Physiotherapy in which Faculty members and students have shared their feedback about the course work. The event concluded with faculty lunch and refreshment to the students.

