

Pledge Taking: “Say No to Corruption: Commit to the Nation”

Vigilance Awareness Week 2023

5th to 8th October 2023

Objective

To motivate the society to avoid and report corrupt practices.

Description

“Say no to corruption”! we have come across this sentence multiple times during our job hours or any market place however is this literally creating any space into the society! Though we all are aware of it and favour our agreement too in its regard but how many of us actually practically applying it and if everyone is following the practice with dedication then why this demon named corruption is still alive! Practicing doesn't only includes not practicing corruption, it also includes stopping others too! if we found some culprit or incidence immediate reporting and actions taken. corruption is a mite to our country which is hollowing and decaying the system. To fight against that mite and kill that up, it requires to create awareness among the society to avoid such evil practices, if address out any incidence immediately report the incident to attract necessary action and what are the legal or general portals or ways to report such cases. To create awareness about all this in our society, Eco Club of Banarsidas Chandiwala Institute of Physiotherapy, New Delhi organised a pledge taking ceremony at the institutional level, where all teaching and non teaching staff and students were made to pledge that they will not practice and entertain any misconduct that involves any kind of corruption. At society level the students of the institute under the guidance of club incharge Dr. Prithvi Parasher (PT), Assistant Professor Banarsidas Chandiwala Institute of Physiotherapy, New Delhi, create awareness about corruption and ways to report such cases and help portals available. The whole event created awareness about social welfare among students and staff of the institute and holistically contributed to the betterment of our country.
